I'd be happy to go. Let me check protocol here on that and also what Susan said about tour.

I spoke with the city and in fact they did not meet with anyone at EPA. Misreported. They did meet with those congressional offices. I think at least Upton in person. So there is our answer on that one.

Any headway scheduling a tour with Upton, Stabenow and Levin?

Also, we are meeting with MDEQ and the city in St. Joseph Michigan on Monday (11 am to 1 pm Eastern) to discuss redevelopment. Lynn Turner from Upton's office will be at the meeting. I think that I told you this. Just making sure. Do you want to go to the meeting?

Haven't heard back from HQ. Also, haven't heard back from Susan but Ronna was going to mention it in senior staff Monday. I will check with her.

Eileen,

We are going to be meeting with the city and MDEQ on redevelopment things next Monday. The meeting will be in St. Joseph's Michigan from 11 am to 1 pm Eastern.

Lynn Turner will also be there. Do you want to attend?

Any word on our talking points for McCarthy? How about who the mayor spoke with in HQ?

Michael

Paul and Michael -

Thank you, Paul, for all the diligent work on getting this meeting set up. As I noted in our phone conversation earlier today, Lynn Turner, Community and Media Liaison Officer, with Congressman Upton's office will also be attending with City staff. I realize that Michael may need to add some others from EPA-Region 5 as well.

I have some thoughts on a proposed agenda that I would like to send along either later this afternoon or on Monday, April 7, if that is acceptable to everyone. I believe it has been indicated that this meeting will be mostly about redevelopment options/opportunities at the Allied Site and I will prepare some agenda items that comport with these options and opportunities.

Thank you again, Paul.

At this time I assume we will be working through lunch, and I have not made any formal arrangements for refreshments. I would also like to get your input on how the meeting should run and development of an agenda. I will follow up with a phone call to discuss these details.

Let me know if you have any questions.
